EMPTY ARMS.

Sod's blessing on the stalwart srms That hold their labor duty. And bear the burdens of the hour With cheerfulness and beauty! All honor to the willing arms

That lift the peer and lowly, and teach us by their kindness A lesson pure and hely! And raptures for the glowing arms That clasp with loving sweetness world of jey and tenderness

And rest unto the weary arms That after pining sadness
Twine round our dear returning ones
And thrid again with gladness!

But sorrow for the longing arms
Where hopes, like birds, have nested;
God's pity for the supty arms
Where darling ones have rested.
